REACH HIGHER. EXPECT MORE.

Welcome to the final phase of a truly landmark regeneration development, blending pioneering urban architecture with open green space and the wider landscape. Bounding historic Greenwich and tranquil Blackheath, with the vibrant communities of Deptford and Lewisham on the doorstep, Heathside offers a birds-eye view of the best south-east London has to offer.

Set within an acre of imaginatively landscaped communal gardens, surrounded by mature woodland and with open green space just a few minutes' walk away, Heathside is an exclusive collection of 106 exceptional new homes. These spacious studio, one and two-bedroom apartments are spread between three uncompromisingly modern buildings – each with striking entrance lobbies – and come with access to excellent amenities including a concierge service, residents' fitness suite, co-working hub, secure underground car parking and cycle storage.

Offering the ideal antidote to the urban bustle, the Royal Borough of Greenwich is one of South London's most attractive places to live.

Outside, you can enjoy panoramic views over St Paul's Cathedral and the City of London from the oldest of London's royal parks. Stocked with deer as far back as 1515, Greenwich Park extends to 183 acres, complete with rose gardens, café and children's boating lake.

The adjacent Blackheath Common is a vast 211 acre expanse of open grassland, and the starting place of the annual London marathon. Hosting daily exercise classes, boot camps and yoga sessions, along with regular fun fairs, fireworks displays, music festivals and charity races, it also boasts the picturesque Prince of Wales Pond, a quintessentially English village setting.

WIDER HORIZONS

DISCOVER THE CHARMS OF GREENWICH AND BLACKHEATH

World famous as the place where two hemispheres meet, Greenwich isn't just about Mean Time. Instead, the area is sprinkled liberally with some of London's most iconic landmarks. History buffs can explore the world's last surviving tea clipper, the Cutty Sark, and view spectacular art and architecture at the Royal Observatory, the National Maritime Museum, Queen's House and the Old Royal Naval College; the latter has just reopened its Painted Hall, complete with day-beds to recline on to admire the ceiling.

EMBRACE VILLAGE LIVING

Granted a Royal Charter in 1700, Greenwich Market offers an unmissable retail experience for locals. With seasonal produce and tasty food-to-go, antiques, collectables and arts and crafts, it also boasts a wide selection of specialist shops, bars, restaurants and cafés. Greenwich Vintage Market is equally eclectic, well worth a browse.

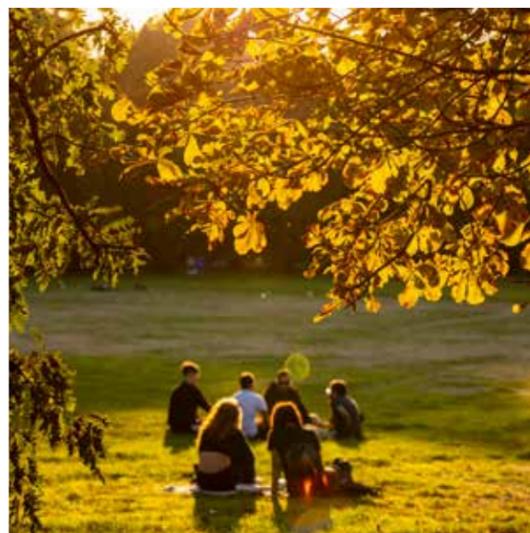

Day-to-day essentials can be picked up Waitrose or Marks & Spencer, while foodies enjoy dipping into Drings butchers, The Cheeseboard, The Creaky Shed greengrocers and Pryke's fishmongers, all around Royal Hill. Karen Woolven Flowers and Heap's Sausages are also highly celebrated.

For fresh food in the fresh air, try Blackheath's Sunday Farmers' Market, where you'll find raw milk, Norfolk caught brown shrimps, local honey and seasonal specials on offer, all surrounded by names such as Farrow & Ball, Jigsaw, Space NK and M&S Simply Food.

LIFE IN ABUNDANCE

Home to elegant Greenwich and idyllic Blackheath – both just a few minutes' walk from Heathside – the area offers a rich and rewarding lifestyle just five miles from central London.

BIG NIGHT OUT

With the Greenwich Theatre, one of London's foremost Off-West End theatres, performances at Blackheath Halls, a choice of cinemas and a wealth of other attractions, living at Heathside ensures you will always be entertained.

Eating out is a real pleasure, with a wide range of restaurants and eateries to tantalise the tastebuds. From local institutions such as Goddard's, serving pie and mash since 1890, to the more modern Sticks'n'Sushi, Peninsula and Craft London, all palates and pockets are catered for. Great gastropubs include the Cutty Sark and the Guildford Arms, while the Meantime Brewery and Champagne + Fromage are also worth a visit. And of course, The Ivy Café in Blackheath can be relied on for friendly, sophisticated all-day dining.

ON THE WATERSIDE

Home to the O2 Arena – one of the world's most iconic music and entertainment venues – and London's only cable cars, the north side of Greenwich Village exudes a real energy and drive. Explore The Tide, London's first elevated riverside linear park; enjoy urban gardening and outdoor yoga at The Jetty; hone your skill at the Greenwich Peninsula Golf Driving Range; shop the world's finest accessible fashion and lifestyle brands at ICON Outlet. Or simply sit back and watch the water sports from one of the traditional British pubs or foodie hot spots overlooking the river.

CITY LIVING

Heathside, with its proximity to transport networks, puts all the attractions of London living within your reach.

DEPTFORD AND LEWISHAM - THE BEST OF URBAN CHIC

A gleaming golden library. Modern museums. Music festivals. And street markets galore. Offering the ultimate in city living, this corner of the capital is an exciting, multi-cultural hub full of creativity and community spirit.

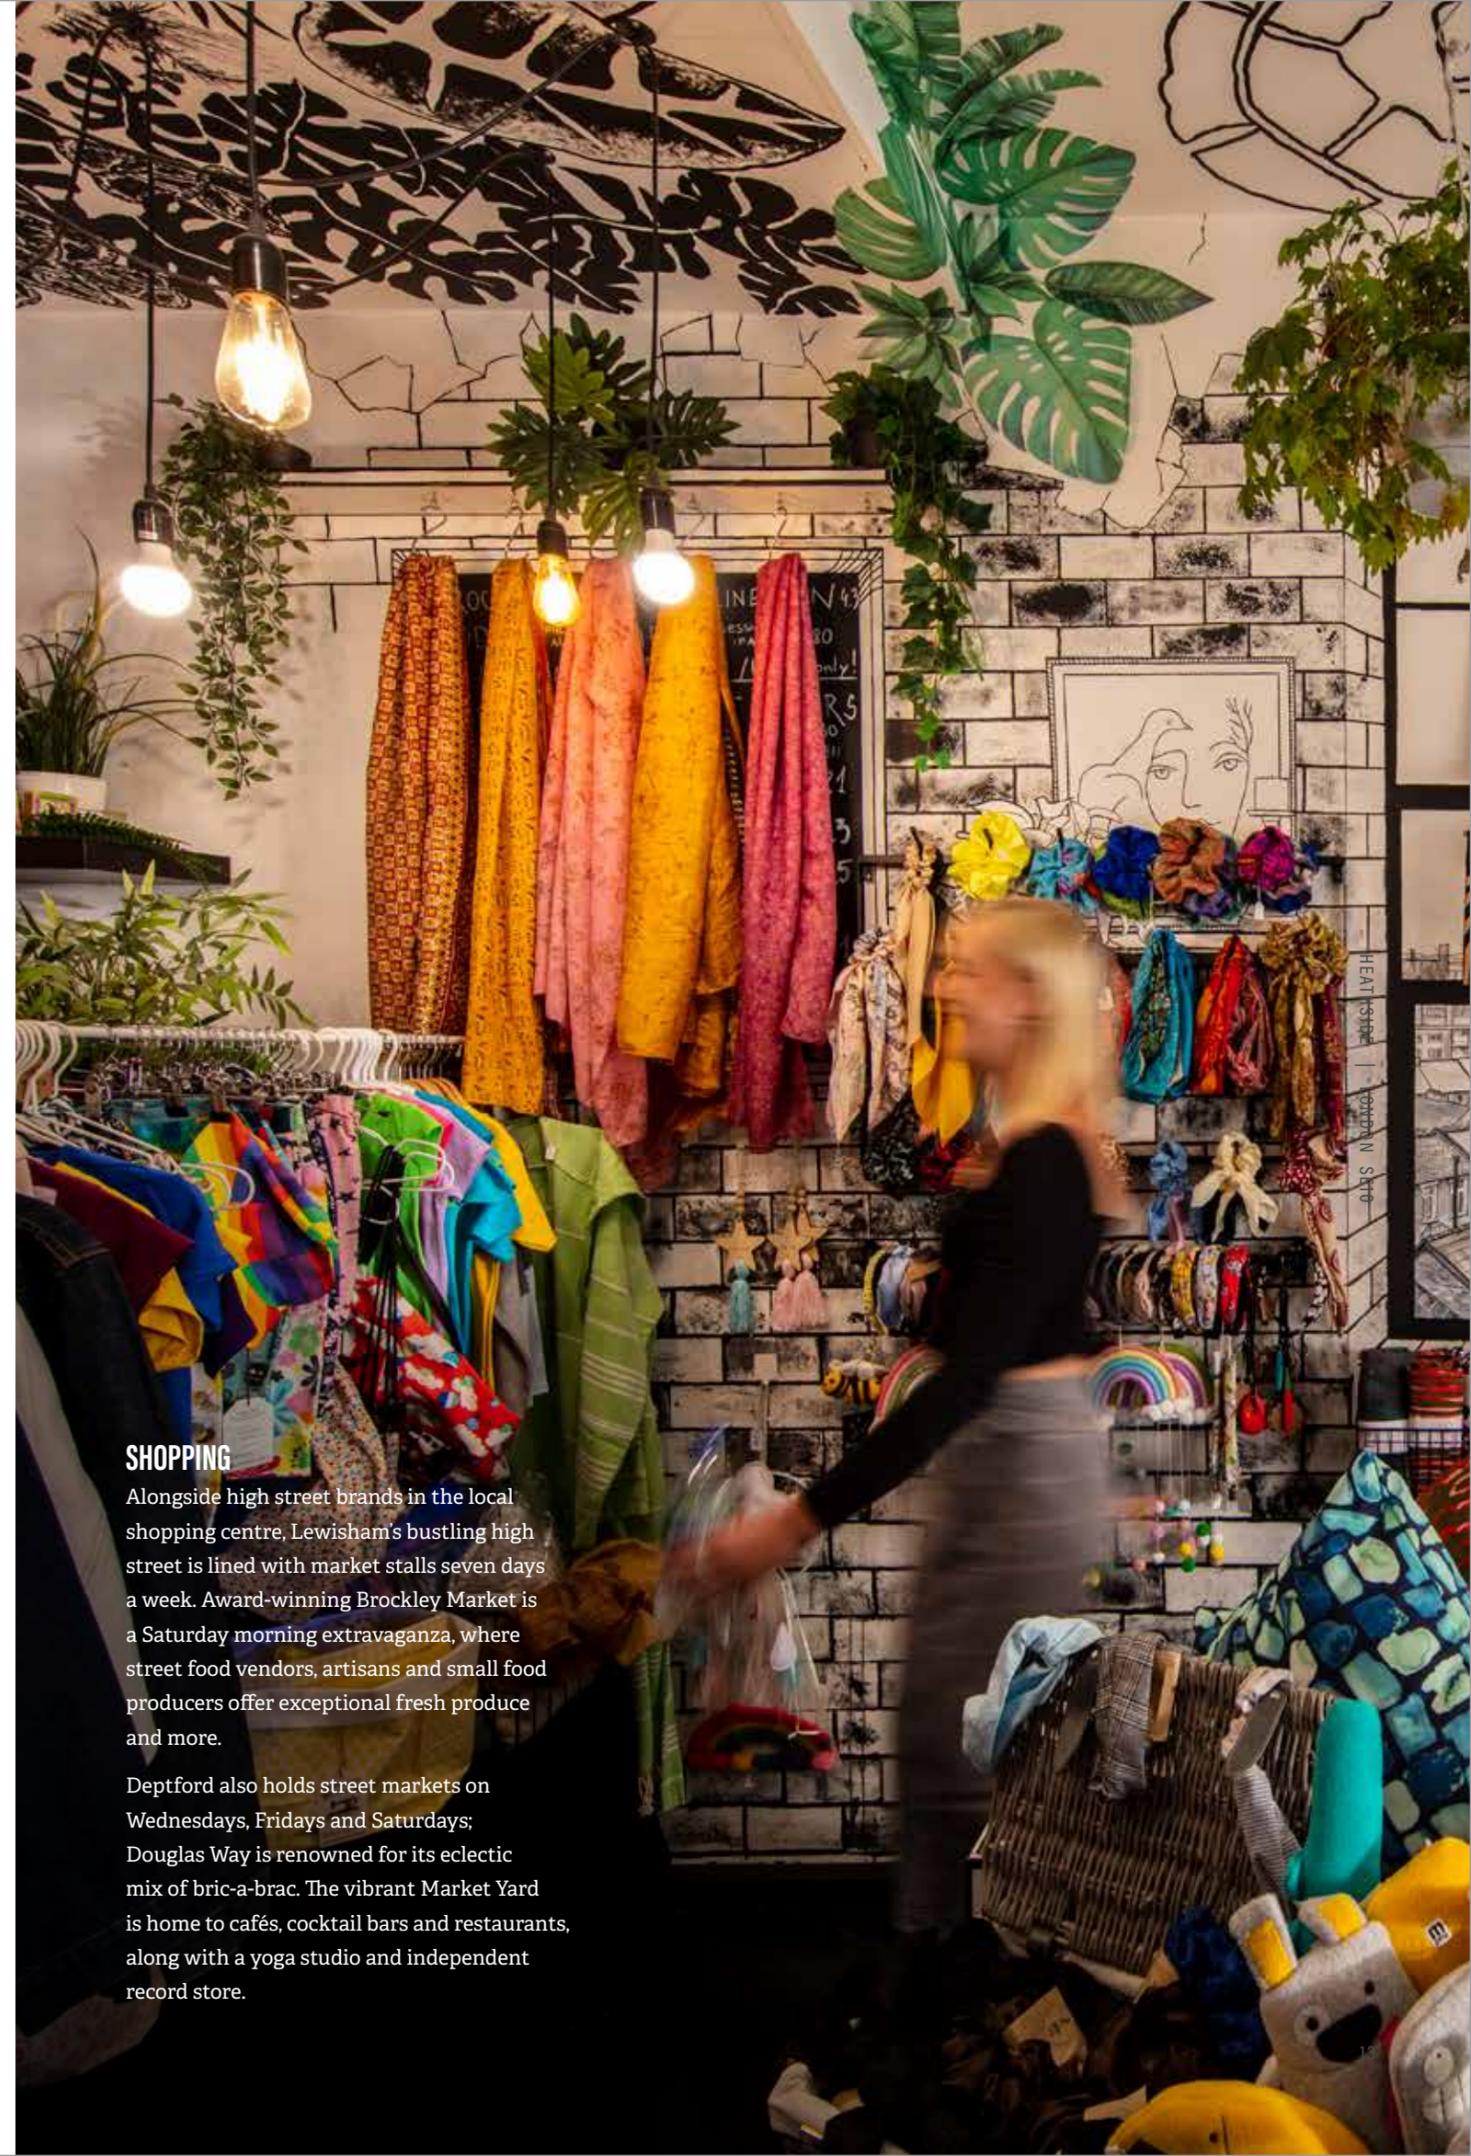

Emerging from a 15-year, £375 million regeneration that has enhanced its Zone 2 status and residential credentials, Lewisham was named the London Borough of Culture 2022, celebrating the unique character of its local people and places.

ENTERTAINMENT

The Albany theatre and community arts centre hosts a huge variety of events across its four performance spaces. Deptford Lounge includes a public library and computer labs, sometimes screening movies for the volunteer-run Deptford Cinema. Lewisham Arthouse hosts studios, public galleries and workshops in a Grade II-listed building, while the local shopping centre is home to the national Migration Museum.

EATING & DRINKING

Boasting a fantastic foodie culture that offers temptations from every corner of the globe, Deptford's local heroes include Marcella for mouth-watering meatballs, Manze for traditional pie and mash, Mama's Jerk for spicy Jamaican street food and Mousetail for artisan coffee. Lewisham's Enish is renowned for its Nigerian cuisine, while Sparrow serves inventive fare using seasonal ingredients.

SHOPPING

Alongside high street brands in the local shopping centre, Lewisham's bustling high street is lined with market stalls seven days a week. Award-winning Brockley Market is a Saturday morning extravaganza, where street food vendors, artisans and small food producers offer exceptional fresh produce and more.

Deptford also holds street markets on Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays; Douglas Way is renowned for its eclectic mix of bric-a-brac. The vibrant Market Yard is home to cafés, cocktail bars and restaurants, along with a yoga studio and independent record store.

CONNECTED LIVING

Heathside is perfectly positioned to get the best out of city living, with a range of transport options connecting you to central London and beyond.

Elverson Road DLR station is on the doorstep, with connections to Greenwich and Canary Wharf for Elizabeth line services. Lewisham Station is approximately 10 minutes' walk away, from where London Bridge can be reached in 11 minutes. Deptford Thameslink Station is only a mile away, while river taxis can be caught from Greenwich Pier, also one mile away.

A PASSPORT TO THE FUTURE

The combination of academic excellence, a rich artistic and cultural heritage and the fact that it's at the centre of global business means that London is ideally suited to offer an inspiring learning experience. There's a reason more international students choose to study in London than any other city in the world.

From a World Heritage Site on the banks of the Thames, through leafy Eltham, to the Royal Navy dockyards at Chatham, The University of Greenwich combines modern facilities with historic locations.

LONDON | SE10

Each inner-facing apartment at Heathside overlooks the beautifully landscaped communal gardens, while apartments to the rear enjoy an equally tranquil view of a wooded backdrop.

Visitors to Heathside will be greeted by a communal concierge who will also be on hand to receive deliveries when you're out. This stylish reception area sets the tone for the level of quality and attention to detail you'll find in your beautiful new apartment.

The development's co-working hub, with a capacity of up to 30 people, is a tranquil environment designed to encourage productivity, benefiting from high speed wireless internet, charging stations and hot and cold drinks refreshment station.

Heathside residents benefit from the use of a comprehensive private fitness suite, while the development's unique snug room is a great place to get together with friends to watch a movie. Add to that easy access to downtown dining and distractions – think lively bars, world-renowned music venues and cultural extravaganzas – and living at Heathside might just be the best decision you ever made.

Marrying state-of-the-art design with meticulous craftsmanship, each home offers generous open-plan accommodation and private outdoor space, with floor-to-ceiling windows providing uninterrupted views over the gardens and the wider landscape.
